In the Cantonment Account Code, 1924, for the words "Accountant General" wherever they occur, the words "Regional Controller of Military Accounts" shall be substituted.

[No. 5/2/G/L&C/51-512-C.]

S.R.O. 200.—The following bye-laws for the control and proper regulation of Flour Mills in the Ahmednagar Cantonment made by the Cantonment Board, Ahmednagar, in exercise of the powers conferred by Clause (17) of section 282 of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely:—

BYE-LAWS.

1. In these bye-laws, "flour mill" means any mill manufacturing flour, which is run by electricity or oil.

2 No new flour mill shall be established except within the areas notified under section 43-A of the Cantonments Act, 1924.

3. No person shall establish or maintain a flour mill except under a licence in the form annexed to these bye-laws issued by the Board.

4 The building or premises in which a flour mill is proposed to be installed shall be:—

(i) at a reasonable distance from any place which gives out offensive smell such as latrines and cesspits,

(ii) a solid structure able to withstand the vibration of the engine, with adequate space for fixing a dynamo or engine in a railed enclosure,

(iii) paved with concrete or cement and

(iv) having 5 feet high cemented walls with a cellinged proof, properly ventilated and lighted.

5. The mill shall only grind food grains which are properly cleaned.

6. No engine or dynamo of more than 12 H.P. shall be installed. Such machinery shall be fixed on a concrete foundation away from the walls of the building in such a manner that the vibrations of the machine do not affect the building.

7. In case of machines run by oil, there shall be a chimney of adequate height fixed to eliminate smoke nuisance to neighbours.

8. The mill shall be worked only between the hours of 6 A.M. and 6 P.M. and shall be open for inspection during this period by the officers and servants of the Board who are authorised to do so.

9. The premises, apparatus and the containers used, shall be kept scrupulously clean and the personnel working therein shall be inoculated and certified as free from any contagious disease, by the authorised Medical Authority.

10. Application for the licence referred to in bye-law 3 shall be made in writing to the Executive Officer in the form annexed to these bye-laws.

11. A breach of any of these bye-laws shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees and in the case of a continuing contravention, with an additional fine which may extend to five rupees for every day after the first day during which the failure or contravention has been persisted in.

12. If the holder of a licence commits a breach of these bye-laws, his licence shall be liable to cancellation by the Executive Officer and shall not be renewed until such time as he has carried out the orders of the Executive Officer, to his satisfaction.
